Event Report Title: REPUBLIC DAY CELEBRATION BY NSS CELL

Date: 25th JANUARY 2024

General

Republic Day is a significant national celebration observed in countries that have adopted a republican form of government. Marked with parade, flag hoisting ceremony, cultural events, and patriotic events, Republic Day serves as a reminder of a nation's unity, diversity, and commitment to democracy and fundamental rights.

Objective

- By organizing events and activities, BCIP aimed to instil a sense of pride and love for the nation among students, fostering patriotism.
- Republic Day celebrations offered opportunities to BCIP, to educate students about the significance of the constitution, democracy, and the history of the country's independence struggle.
- Through cultural performances, speeches, and other activities, colleges emphasized the importance of unity in diversity, celebrating the rich cultural heritage of our nation.
- To encourage students to actively participate in democratic processes, understand their rights and responsibilities as citizens, and contribute to the welfare of society.

About the Events:

Flag Hoisting and Parade: The event started with flag hoisting by Dr. C.S Ram, Director BCIP, followed by National Anthem by the choir group along with the whole BCIP family. After the completion of National Anthem, students of all classes did march-past to mark the sense of pride and love among the students.

After March-past, our Director Sir, Dr C.S Ram gave an inspirational talk to our students which encouraged the students to actively participate in democratic processes, understand their rights and responsibilities as citizens, and contribute to the welfare of society.

After the ground event, we had a high tea break for students and faculty which was refreshing and it offered students an opportunity to unwind, socialize, and recharge before diving back to the Auditorium.

Saraswati Vandana: By Shivani, 4th year student: The program commences with an invocation to Goddess Saraswati, symbolizing the pursuit of knowledge and wisdom.

Welcome Speech : By Dr C.S Ram, the Director, BCIP extended a warm welcome to all the faculty members, staff, and students, setting the tone for the event.

Constitution Speech: By Shashank, 4th year student delivered a speech highlighting the significance of the constitution, emphasizing the principles of democracy, equality, and justice.

Fancy Dress Competition: Participants each from all classes showcased their creativity and patriotism through imaginative costumes representing historical figures, national symbols, or themes related to Indian culture and heritage.

Dance Competition: Students in groups expressed their artistic talents through vibrant and spirited dance performances, celebrating the cultural diversity and unity of the nation.

Solo Singing Competition: Vocalists captivated the audience with soulful renditions of patriotic songs or melodies that evoke the spirit of the Republic Day. This was an inter class competition.

Quiz Competition: Four Participants from each year engaged in an intellectually stimulating quiz competition focusing on the constitution, Indian history, and current affairs, testing their knowledge and awareness.

Drawing Competition: Artists exhibit their artistic talent through colourful and expressive artwork depicting themes of freedom, unity, and national pride.

Valedictory Ceremony: The event concluded with a valedictory ceremony, where prizes were awarded to winners of various competitions, and certificates of participation are distributed to all participants by the Director Dr. C.S Ram, and the teaching faculties.

Vote of Thanks: Dr. C.S Ram, the Director expressed his gratitude to everyone involved in organizing and participating in the Republic Day celebrations, acknowledging their contributions and commitment to the success of the event.

Conclusion

Students learned about their national responsibilities and became acquainted with the fundamentals of the Indian Constitution at this Republic Day event. They developed a greater awareness of their civic duties and the values that support our democracy via a variety of events and lectures. This occasion provided a forum for the students to develop a feeling of civic responsibility and patriotism, enabling them to make constructive contributions to the advancement and prosperity of the nation.

The Republic Day event showed how much we care about our country, its culture, and learning new things. Let's keep feeling united and proud of our nation not just today, but every day. Jai Hind!
